

"Out of Mind."

In other months we forget the harsh winds of Spring. But they have their use, as some say, to blow out the bad air accumulated after Winter storms and Spring thaws. There is far more important accumulation of badness in the veins and arteries of humanity, which needs Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great Spring Medicine clarifies the blood as nothing else can. It cures scrofula, kidney disease, liver troubles, rheumatism and kindred ailments. Thus it gives perfect health, strength and appetite for months to come.

Kidneys—"My kidneys troubled me, and on advice took Hood's Sarsaparilla which gave prompt relief, better appetite. My sleep is refreshing. It cured my wife also." MICHAEL BOYLE, 3473 Denny Street, Pittsburg, Pa.

Dyspepsia—"Complicated with liver and kidney trouble, I suffered for years with dyspepsia, with severe pains. Hood's Sarsaparilla made me strong and hearty." J. B. EMMERT, Main Street, Auburn, Me.

No Disease—"Five running sores on my hip caused me to use crutches. Was confined to bed every winter. Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my life, as it cured me perfectly. Am strong and well." ARNOLD ROBERT, 49 Fourth St., Fall River, Mass.

Miami Gets Him.

The Qui Vive regrets to report that the announcement made last week of the election of Prof. Fisher as principal of our school was premature.

The Professor Thursday assured the Board that he would take the position at $40 per month; his offer was accepted on Friday. Meanwhile the Miami Board of Education was in the ring and proffered him the position of principal of their school at $90 per month. By means of the telephone they reached the Professor before a letter did from here and he accepted their proposition. —Malta Bend Qui Vive.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo O. #### CONTRIBUTED:

Whenever we see good work well done, we like to commend the doer. We are anxious to bestow praise upon any official who does his own duty, regardless of party sect.

Judge Bush is setting a pace in the Probate Office that his predecessors should have set, and an example that his successors well may follow. He seems to keenly realize the fact that judicial ermine is not donned to reward one's friends nor to punish one's enemies. The Probate Court, above all other tribunals, stands as the guardian of the widow and orphan; without its vigilant and wholesome care, the widow loses her rights and the orphan its heritage. The caretaker of duty, the abstinence from enforcing the mandates of the law, or the institution to the process of administration of estates would entail, as it has entailed, incalculable loss and injury to countless homes.

Judge Bush seems to understand the functions of his office, and to be enforcing the mandates of the law with firm and vigorous hand. (1) He has gone over the past records of his office, and where time and circumstance have rendered official bonds worthless, he has compelled the re-execution of good bonds. This is striking at the very root of a growing public evil. Bondsmen often become insolvent, the curator or administrator worthless and profligate, and orphans and widows have no recourse against those who have bilked them out of their estates. (2) He has compelled trustees and guardians to make their settlements, and for disobedience to these orders he has caused the delinquents to be arrested and fined. (3) He has imposed fines and penalties upon those refusing or neglecting to handle estates and make settlements or reports according to law. (4) He has shown a commendable indifference to party lash, by endeavoring to curtail County expenses, and publish his official notices in the paper, regardless of its politics, that will render the cheapest and best service. He is pursuing these policies without fear or favor; and they are, one and all, highly praiseworthy policies. Let the good work go on. We oppose the Judge at the polls; but he is now the common officer of us all, whom we do not hesitate to praise for his official virtues and fearless stand. We stand always for pure government, and willingly give honor to whom honor is due.
